GALTON INSTITUTE RECEIVES ROSENBERG FOUNDATION GRANT

The Galton Institute of Los Angeles has been awarded a grant from the Rosenberg Foundation to support the planning phases of the Institute's Project LINGUA, it was announced in July. The program is designed to teach basic skills, such as reading, writing, and arithmetic, to Spanish-speaking children in the Spanish language and within the structure of the U.S. school system. The Galton Institute and the Rosenberg Foundation are both non-profit, California-based organizations, the former devoted to the study of intellectual and creative development and the latter founded to support the advancement of human achievement.
